SEEDED PLAYERS WIN MATCHES IN GULF COAST PLAY IN TENNIS TOURNAMENT IN BAY ST. LOUIS—SINGLES SEMI-FINALS SATURDAY

Large Field of Contestants From Gulf Coast Animate Courts at St. Stanislaus Last Sunday—Six Players Remain to Contest.

The finals of the men's doubles and semifinals of singles in the annual Gulf Coast tennis tournament were reached Sunday afternoon on the courts of St. Stanislaus college at Bay St. Louis, Miss., with seeded teams and players coming through true to form. Out of a large field of contestants from various cities along the coast, there remained but six players to contest the honors of Gulf Coast champions.

Louis Lange and Bernie Shields, No. 1 seeded team, winners of the doubles for two consecutive years, won their way into the finals after dropping the first set to Martin Mayer and C. J. Lauve. Mayer's spectacular play and hard drives were ably assisted by Lauve's steady cross-court shots, but they could not cope with the fierce placements of Lange and consistent returns of Shields. The final score was 4-6, 6-2, 6-4. Paul Gooseman and Donald Diboll, No. 2 seeded team, won their way into the finals in the lower bracket after a grueling match with Bill Macassin and Earl Kissinger which lasted well into the evening. Kissinger's hard drives, coupled with Macassin's superb net play, made the going hard but the wonderful teamwork and sharp angle shots of Diboll and Gooseman were too much for them and they bowed to scores of 6-3, 0-6, 6-4.

Louis Lange won his way into the semifinals singles by defeating Cally Lauve, 6-3, 8-6. Lauve made a hard fight in the second set and threatened to carry the match to three sets, but was finally subdued after many long duce games, which wore him down. Val Wilson bowed to Martin Mayer, No. 2 seeded, who advanced into the semifinals by a score of 6-4, 9-7. This match, perhaps, was one of the most outstanding of the day and was featured by the powerful drives of both players and excellent volleying. Bill Macassin, the other semifinalist, easily defeated Knox Jones of Long Beach with the loss of only one game. Macassin's superb net play since the beginning of the tournament has carried him to the semifinal round with a total loss of only three games.

Paul Gooseman gained the semifinal round by defeating Earl Kissinger. Kissinger's beautiful volleying carried him to many duce games but Gooseman was too steady for him and he bowed to the score of 6-2, 6-3.

The semifinals of the singles will be played next Saturday at Bay St. Louis, with Lange meeting Macassin and Gooseman facing Mayer. The finals of the doubles and singles will be played Sunday. Girls' singles will start Saturday.

Used to getting candy from a jar in a pantry at home, the young one in an unguarded moment stole away to a medicine wall chest and taking strychnine tablets for candy opened the bottle and swallowed a quantity. The tablets were kept for use by Mrs. Fayard's mother for an heart affection.

The child was rushed to the Biloxi City Hospital where it remained two days and was finally taken home pronounced out of danger. She is the grandchild of Mrs. Ullie Fayard and a niece of Mrs. Celine Ashcraft, member Central school teaching faculty.

Several hundred magazines have already been handed over to the colored people's organization by the Hancock E. R. A. County Library, which, as rapidly as is possible, will follow these up with a goodly stream of varied and useful books. The city council is making the colored people a present of a bookcase and window bench identical with those now handsomely decorating the sunny rooms over the Hancock County Bank.

Coincident with this display of the unflinching interest of the public in the library experiment, comes the news that Sannie Collins, on Balenine street, is giving her large front room for the Negro Branch of the main institution.

Telhiard gave up 7 hits and 6 runs in 3 innings and Collier gave up 14 hits with 12 runs in 5 innings. Telhiard struck out 1 man and Collier, 0, while their opponent pitched 9 innings giving up 9 hits and 2 runs and striking out 3 men.

CITY LIBRARY BOOKS PASS TWO THOUSAND MARK AND GROWING

Tag Day Netted Handsome Sum—Generous Contribution of Books—Branch For Negroes

The number of books on the shelves of the Bay St. Louis public library, officially known as the Hancock E. R. A. County Library, has grown past the two thousand mark during the past week, due to several generous contributions from the private libraries of interested people.

Generous Contribution
Dr. and Mrs. Alvah Smith, of Bay St. Louis, contributed thirty-three books; Mrs. Hope Ogden, also of Bay St. Louis, gave fifty-nine; Mr. and Mrs. W. Sankowsky, of Scotch Plains, New Jersey, sent thirty. And various single volumes have been donated by young people. The Misty Rain-bow being the gift of Lillian Garis, and Circus Day that of Walter Carroll, Jr.

Tag Day Netted $52.00
The sympathy with which the people of the city aided in promoting the welfare of the library by their kindly gifts of money on Saturday, June the twenty-ninth, the annual Library tag day, was a spur to the lively interest with which members of the governing board are endeavoring to make the new library and educational center one of the best known in the state. Fifty-two dollars and some cents was the total cash money collected, (which is, after all, over half a hundred.)

This amount does not include the pledges received from those in the town who wished to contribute more substantial amounts than the pennies, dimes, quarters and occasional dollars, given by the people passing the tag day workers on the sidewalk.

The early morning shopper on that day seemed, to at least one perspiring solicitor, your library reporter, in a gracious, even jovial mood. No one flung the depression at our staunch but sun-baked head. Few came by who did not, with a smile, hand our young, light-footed helpers his or her bit to assist with the dissemination of book knowledge in the community.

Branch For Negro Readers

H. L. RICHARDSON OF DEDEAUX CONS. HIGH SCHOOL RE-ELECTED

School Premises on Hancock-Harrison County Line Thoroughly Rehabilitated

M. L. Richardson has been re-elected superintendent of the Dedeaux High School, line school of Harrison and Hancock counties, for his fourth year. The new teachers have been elected, namely: Miss Celeste Edwards of Woolmarket, who has been teaching at Sellers School for the past five years and who will teach the primary grades, succeeding Miss Anna Russell, and Mrs. Saul Niolet, resident of the Dedeaux community who was formerly a teacher at the school, who will teach the fourth grade, succeeding Miss Ethel Shaw. Teachers re-elected in addition to Prof. Richardson, mathematics teacher, follow: Miss Mattie Mary Gandy, home economics and science; M. M. Ladner, seventh and eighth grades; Lamar Cley, coach and teacher of the fifth and sixth grades; Miss Ira May Ladner, third grade; and Miss Eunice Naise, second grade. Dedeaux has a full four year high school course.

Cement walks have been constructed on the Dedeaux School grounds, a new roof has been placed on the teacherage and a new home economics practice cottage has been built on the grounds, while almost all of the 20 acres in the school plot have been cleared and developed. Supt. Richardson reports. This work has been made possible because the labor has been furnished through the relief department and the school district has furnished the materials. This work began last summer and will continue several months longer, possibly. The home economics cottage is the most recent acquisition and Supt. Richardson is engaged in having it adequately furnished, two new sewing machines having been purchased recently.

Political Rally and Public Picnic at Leetown On Friday of Next Week

One of the biggest political rallies and all-day picnics yet held in Hancock county for the campaign will be held at Leetown Park, adjoining the dwelling of R. N. Lee, at Leetown, beginning at 10 o'clock, A. M. and continuing throughout the afternoon. The public is generally invited and it is expected to see one of the largest crowds yet assembled this season.

It is specifically noted there will be no charge for candidates, none will be asked in any manner to contribute.

Cop: "Here let me insert the latch key for you, my friend."
Sailor: "It's p-perfectly all right, officer. I'll manage it if you'll just hold this house still."

"Bradley's" resort de luxe in a subtropical setting at Henderson Point, on Bay St. Louis, was the scene Tuesday night of a beautiful affair and auspicious occasion—annual intercity banquet and installation of officers of both Pass Christian and Bay St. Louis Rotary Clubs.

Eighty people sat at the long "U" table and during serving of the various courses a program for both clubs was simultaneously carried out. Both presidents of the respective clubs sat at the center places of the main table, Wm. V. Robinson, Pass Christian, and Arthur A. Scafide, Bay St. Louis, also Ad. E. Lang, chairman of the Pass committee of arrangements and Chas. G. Moreau, chairman Bay St. Louis committee; the latter presiding for both clubs, during the affair. It was a gracious gesture from the Pass Club that Chairman Lang insisted the honor of master of ceremonies be accorded Bay St. Louis Rotary Club rather than his own and self serving.

The following-named officers were installed and assumed their new responsibilities and honors: For Pass Christian, Prof. Frank French, president; Rev. Girault Jones, vice president; Ad. E. Lang, secretary-treasurer.

For Bay St. Louis—Joseph R. Scharff, president; M. E. Badon, vice president; Clarence M. Weeks, secretary-treasurer; Norton Haas, sergeant-at-arms.

Retiring President Arthur A. Scafide was presented with a gold emblem button, inscribed, "Past President." He responded to the presentation address. President Scharff and President French delivered brief but appropriate addresses of acceptance of the newly-conferred honors.

Ed. Tardy, resident of Biloxi, connected with the Louisville and Nashville R. R. Co., was cited for his splendid Rotary attendance—fourteen years without missing a single meeting.

Luther H. Barksdale of Pass Christian was also cited for eleven consecutive years' perfect attendance.

Francis Hursey, resident of Pass Christian, whose ingratiating voice has been heard from WWL broadcasting station, gave two pleasing numbers.

A contribution to the program from Bay St. Louis consisted of two numbers by the Rotary quartet composed of H. D. Kirkpatrick, Fred A. Wright, Arthur A. Scafide and Dr. James A. Evans.

Rev. Girault Jones was the principal speaker for the Pass Club and Senator Carl Marshall for Bay St. Louis, each having been assigned their respective cities as subjects.

Both addresses were scholarly and replete with refreshing humor, neither antagonizing one another's town and each praising their own.

Dancing and the club floor show brought the memorable evening to a close.

The Bay St. Louis arrangement committee chairman wishes to acknowledge the splendid co-operation of Dr. Jas. A. Evans and Jos. R. Scharff, M. E. Badon and A. A. Scafide in particular for their assistance and to the club members as well who, in a body, helped to make the annual intercity meet the success it abundantly proved. Also to A. E. Lang of Pass Christian Club for personal interest and assistance.

Pedro Monti Victim of Serious and Painful Accident Sunday A. M.

Pedro Monti, lessee and operator of the Standard gas and service station in Uman Avenue, opposite Hotel Weston, was the victim of a painful and serious mishap Sunday morning.

It appears, while repairing an automobile tire, an iron ring holding the tire in position slipped and one of the edges struck him in the crotch. On the moment he thought little or nothing of the occurrence until he felt a quantity of warm fluid trickling down his leg, which proved to be blood. The loss was in such copious quantity that he soon fainted. Dr. D. H. Ward was summoned and was soon on the scene, removing the young man to his office, where he was given immediate treatment and later sent to Touro infirmary, New Orleans, for further treatment and such attention that full hospital equipment makes possible. While his injury was of serious nature, his condition has responded to treatment and he is reported better.

Mr. Monti had entered on the first day of his lease and contract when the accident occurred.

STREAMLINE TRAINS FOR THE FUTURE

BAY ST. LOUIS and the balance of the Mississippi Gulf Coast enjoyed the privilege last Thursday morning of viewing the modern streamline train, "Rebel," pass thru en route to New Orleans. The new train was hailed with acclaim and justly so.

If our railroad passenger trains are to remain in business, i. e., to do any appreciable business it is patent they are going to have to relegate the present old-time equipment. Heavy coaches, practically running at dead weight, day coaches poorly ventilated and carrying the heat of summer, plugging along from station to station on to an ultimate goal that spells fatigue, dust and disgust, are destined to the junk heap.

If the passenger business is to endure it will be only by means of the ultra-modern equipment, such as streamline trains that are being inaugurated into services over certain parts of the country.

The public today will patronize such trains that are swift, light running and comfortable to the very degree of temperature necessary to be free from the present torture of the average train. The aeroplane, the motor bus, the private auto are among the keenest agencies of competition and the kind that is going to have to be met—if the railroads are to remain in business as passenger carriers to paying extent.

REPORT ON BIRTH CONTROL

A WEEK or so ago at the annual convention of the American Medical Association the question of birth control received its first official recognition by the House of Delegates, the governing body of organized American medicine.

The Association in its resolution did not concern itself either for or against the control of reproduction but it provided for the appointment of a special committee to study the problem and make a report to the Association at its convention in 1937.

This action was exactly opposite to the fate encountered by similar resolutions for four consecutive years.

FLYING HIGH

AERIAL engineers believe that high flying airplanes at forty thousand feet altitudes, will soon be available, offering all that can be desired in safety and desirability.

Airships in the stratosphere will not encounter fog, irregular wind or ice, which causes most of the dangers at low altitudes. In case of trouble it would take a plane one hour to glide from forty thousand feet to a landing and in doing so it could pick any spot within a radius of one hundred and twenty miles.

The only objection to high-altitude flying is the possibility of monotony, for passengers might find the darkened sky and reduced visibility of the earth tiresome.

WORTH MORE THAN A TITLE

WE don't know how long the Hon. James Braddock will remain heavyweight champion of the United States, and other nations, but he has something of a record worth noting.

About a year ago he was on relief, receiving altogether some $367 from the government to take care of himself and family. What of it? Well, the night before he won his title he forced the New Jersey relief administrator to take his note for that amount and since the fight he has paid it in full before it became due.

Evidently, he believes in paying his bills even when there is no law to make him do so. That is worth more than a boxing championship.

CHEAP POLITICS

After the campaign will be over and the even tenor of our every day life restored, it is hoped the people will get back to work and resume their regular occupation. Cheap politics are plentiful. Serving to no good purpose, only proving a disturbing factor. If there was ever a time in the history of our State when people should not be disturbed and distracted from their daily pursuit and their effort to realize worthy ambitions for true and constructive results, that time is now. We are at the crossroads of returning normal conditions—call it prosperity if you will, and only the very best and sanest attention is demanded.

Don't work too hard and you will never be told that what you need is a complete rest.

Personally, we have never been able to keep up with the true lovers of Hollywood.

Modern mothers, with all due respect, were not much different in their day and generation, from modern daughters.

We may be wrong; in fact, we are wrong very often but we don't care to hear any lectures on the benefits of eating spinach.

Our own idea is that buying at home will build up your home town and increase the value of whatever stake you happen to have in it.

BILOXI YACHT ARMADA IN SIX-DAY REGATTA

BILOXI, home of southern sailing since the French first handled canvas on sloops and yawls, in 1699, has bid a warm welcome to a vast armada of Gulf boats and yachtsmen, there this week for the six-day Biloxi Yacht Club regatta.

Palatial power yachts vie with tiny catboats for honors, unfurling an interesting picture for local residents and many summer visitors and others. Over ninety boats are reported in harbor.

There were fifteen races scheduled for the first day and one hundred and six races during the week in the most extensive regatta period of the entire South.

The New Orleans fleet is in port following a race from New Orleans, the outstanding feature of which was the victory of the 21-foot cabin sloop Sis, owned and sailed by J. E. Rau. This trim craft, says a report, made the 110-mile route in 24 hours and 27 minutes and two seconds, crossing the home buoy only 27 seconds ahead of the famous Robinhood, IV, owned by E. B. Overton, Mobile.

As the week elapses each day proves the regatta a success, a potential factor in the gay summer season of one of the Coast's seven-cities-by-the-sea. Visitors come to the Coast from all sections. The season is at height in its very zenith, and it is well there is attraction to interest in addition to the natural allurements.

Biloxi had no Mardi Gras this year, the first to miss in many years. But a water carnival of unusual preparation and program, was promised and it is interesting to note the effort is going over big.

THE LONG SUFFERING MOTORIST

THE motorist is a helpless victim of taxation because there is no practical substitute for gasoline.

For almost any other commodity the consumer can use a substitute.

But when it comes to gasoline, it's pay the tax or stop driving.

The states started taxing gasoline "moderately" but, as with all special taxes, the gas tax soon became exorbitant.

Then the federal government decided to take its pound of flesh from the motorist.

Motorists have it in their power to demand a reduction of exorbitant gas taxes, including the actual repeal of the federal gas tax.

They also have the right to demand that gasoline taxes be not used for other than road purposes.

When taxes run from 25 to 50 per cent of the retail price of any article, as the gasoline tax does, it is high time to correct the abuse.

SUMMER ADVERTISING GOOD

LOCAL Merchants who intend to get their share of the fall purchases can take a step forward by advertising in the summer.

Too many store-keepers think that the time to advertise is when everybody else is doing so, forgetting that when the other man lays off the field is wide open. Then, much of the value of advertising is to be found in the good will created, and this can be done very effectively in slack periods when other stores are content to keep silent.

The merchants who will do judicious advertising between the first of July and the fall trade will find the groundwork prepared for bigger results when the money begins to come home. Many a sale is made months before the customer comes into the store.

"SOAK THE RICH"

"SOAK the rich" is apparently President Roosevelt's slogan. He is charged with filching it from Senator Huey Long. If we soak the rich, the industrialist, capitalist, etc., what will become of the middle class whose living is made possible by the "rich." If we soak corporations and wreck the earning capacity of their stock and dividend payments what will become of the great mass of people holding such securities as investment representing years of toil and savings?

"Soak the rich" is a political term of the rankest sort. It smells to heaven and only appeals to bolsheviks, socialists and the kind. It will wreck the foundation of our country's wealth. Cheap politics and sounds like a cheap bid for the presidency. It appeals to the rabble.

THEY GET RICH QUICK

PEOPLE still live who are ready to invest their savings with the man who promises to make them rich.

Last week police in a large city uncovered the activities of a man who mulcted a number of customers out of thousands of dollars. He got them to invest, paid huge "profits" for a month or so, persuaded them to take more stock and then came the blow-up. The investments are a total loss.

Time and again the Sea Coast Echo has warned its readers not to gamble on any get-rich-quick scheme. When any agent tries to sell you anything that will make you more than a legitimate return on your money that is the time to show him out and save your cash.

THE CHURCHES GROW

WHILE statistics as to the growth of churches are to be taken with some reservations, because they are sent in by the churches themselves, the fact that these figures show that all of our leading religious bodies have recorded gains over a period of seven years may be taken as an indication that religion is not yet as dead as some people would like to make out.

There are, we understand, about 240,000 ministers in the nation, or about one for every 500 persons. The presumption is that there are as many churches. Last year, according to the Christian Herald, there was a gain of 1,222,064 in the membership of churches and religious bodies, which brings the total above 62,000,000—approximately half of the population.

WHAT THE PRESS IS SAYING OF MEN AND MATTERS IN EDITORIAL EXPRESSION

THAT'S THE WAY WE FELT

(Picaune Item)

WE had heard lots about Will Rogers in "Life Begins at 40," depicting a newspaper scene. So, we went to see it. If Will Rogers is a printer, we are a clown. He held his composing stick about like an elephant would hold a powder puff. He held it like a Chinaman holds a chop stick. He hung his linotype up at transfer position and walked off and left it. We wanted to send the line through for him so badly we almost caught ourself going toward the screen.

HIGHEST LIMIT OF GALL

(Pass Christian Tarpon)

THE most Gall we have ever seen brazenly displayed is that of the Bus and Truck lines openly and lustily demanding better roads in Mississippi.

Such demands coming from that source is an insult to the taxpayers of the State.

These lines pay practically no taxes to the State or its subdivisions. They use, abuse and in many cases destroy the roads and bridges that are built by the taxpayers, and then have the audacity to demand better highways and roads for the free use of their boses and over-loaded trucks.

The next Legislature should see that such corporations pay a fair tax for the benefits and privileges that are furnished them.

Railroad companies are in many instances, over taxed for the same privilege that their competitors enjoy without taxation, and thus be made to pay a just proportion of the cost of the roads and bridges that they are now destroying.

DON'T BELIEVE IT

(Pass Christian Tarpon)

THE whispering around by some few fellows, that E. J. Adam, Sr., is not a candidate for County Supervisor, is just a wish of those who are circulating the falsehood. He is in to the end.

Candidates are now talking and making promises. As they come, check up on them, and draw a parallel line to prove yether or not they have practiced what they are now preaching. Those who have been tried and proved worthy, are the ones who should receive consideration.

WOMEN OF SELLERS DISTRICT BUSILY AND SUCCESSFULLY ENGAGED IN ECONOMIC ENDEAVOR UNDER ORGANIZED CLASSES

Number of Sinks Finished and Placed—To Encourage Use Of Running Water—How to Keep Eggs Fresh From Ten to Twelve Months.

Interesting evening classes for women are being held in the Sellers School District. The classes have already completed eighteen sinks and that many more will be made. These sinks are made of galvanized iron secured from the Trenton Supply Company, Wiggins, and Thigpen and Whitfield, Picaune. The sinks are being installed in homes and dairies. They are very economical and useful in either. The main purpose of this sink making is to stimulate interest in installing running water in the homes and dairies.

The classes have also been studying methods of egg preservation. They have found the following method very effective: Use eggs that are absolutely fresh; be sure of that. An earthenware jar or crock is best to pack them in. Don't use dirty eggs; discard them as mashing interferes with their keeping qualities. Use only eggs that are clean from the nest. To one cup of "water Gloss" add ten cups of clean water that has been previously boiled and cooled. Stir the mixture well. Put in the eggs carefully keeping the small end down. See that the eggs are all fully covered by the mixture. This process can be repeated from day to day as the eggs come in until the crock is full. It can then be put away for winter use. A cool dry cellar is best. Once or twice during the summer and fall add a cupful of boiled and cooled water to the top of the crock to keep the mixture soft so that the eggs can be easily taken out with a spoon when needed. See that the liquid covers the eggs completely at all times. Keep the crock covered with a cloth and a lid of some kind to keep out insects.

They will keep from 10 to 12 months. If these simple directions are followed you will have eggs that are as wholesome and palatable when used as newly laid eggs. The yolk will be high and they will poach almost as readily as fresh eggs. Water

Gloss is harmless and does not flavor the eggs. One quart preserves 30 to 40 dozen eggs. Water Gloss may be purchased at the Hyde Drug Co., Poplarville in this vicinity, or Sears, Roebuck Co.

SIX-STAR CAST ACTS "RUGGLES" NOTED COMEDY

"Ruggles of Red Gap" to be At Local Theater This Sunday and Monday

The amusing account of what happens to a perfect English butler-valet when he is exposed to American ideas of Democracy, is the plot and story of Paramount's "Ruggles of Red Gap," which comes Sunday and Monday to the A. & G. Theater, with Charles Laughton in the title role.

The picture, adapted from Harry Leon Wilson's famous story, first published in the Saturday Evening Post, features Mary Boland, Charlie Ruggles, Roland Young, Zasu Pitts and Leila Hyams in support of Laughton.

"Ruggles" adventures begin when his titled master loses him to an American tourist and his wife in a poker game. On his first day in his new job, Ruggles takes his exuberant master out to view London's art galleries and winds up with him in a drunken spree.

Back to Red Gap, U. S. A., a crude but stimulating Western town of the 1900's, goes "Ruggles" with his American employers. And, when his master introduces him to the society big-wigs of Red Gap, as a Colonel of the English Army, "Ruggles" becomes the social favorite of the town. "Ruggles" former master turns up in Red Gap to find a completely altered butler who engineers his lordship into a romance with a lovely American lady. Finally, "Ruggles" himself finds romance with the town's leading widow and becomes the town's leading restaurateur.

Maude Eburne and Lucien Littlefield, both veterans of the stage and screen, are prominently cast in supporting roles. Leo McCarey, recognized throughout filmdom for his comedy work, directed "Ruggles of Red Gap."

"FREE" TEXT BOOKS FOR SCHOOL CHILDREN EXPENSIVE BURDEN

State Law Now Permits Supervisors to Provide Books For Those Unable to Pay

One of the candidates for governor is devoting a great deal of time advocating free school books and assuring the people that if he is elected all children will be supplied with school books free of cost, with the Booneville Banner. Every thinking man knows that nothing is free. That someone, somehow, must pay for everything we get. Should a law be enacted providing free school books, it would simply mean that instead of the parents paying for books out of their individual pockets at the time of the purchase, every taxpayer would have an additional amount included in his taxes each year, and the books would be paid for out of the public treasury.

No child need lose one day from school under the present laws for want of school books.

The legislature for 1932 enacted the following law:

"That the board of supervisors of each county in the state of Mississippi and the governing authorities of any municipality constituted a separate school district are hereby authorized to provide such books as may be necessary to equip any child for attendance at school whose parents or guardian are unable to furnish same." The books to be paid for out of the county or municipal funds.

Under this law the child gets the books "free" but the taxpayers foot the bill. This is exactly what happens when anything "free" is furnished.

We hear a great deal about our free public schools, but we have long since learned that they are far from being "free."

A large part of your tax-dollar goes to the support and maintenance of our so-called "free schools" and each year we are confronted with the necessity or demand for an increase in our school taxes in order to maintain our free schools.

Certainly those who are fortunate enough to buy books for their children should be willing to do so, and those who are not able are now provided for under present laws.

If all books were provided for by the state or counties neither parents nor children would be as careful with the books as they now are and as a result new books would be purchased thereby putting a heavier burden on the people and at the same time increase the tremendous profits of the book trust.

Imagine every negro child in the state being placed in a position where they could walk into a store, purchase books as desired and charge them to the county or state. "What would such a law cost the people?" We all know that the book trust is not going to print and distribute books for nothing.

When the candidate in question is asked how free books are to be provided his reply is "leave that to me."

Do you not think he should take the people into his confidence and tell them how?

COMMITTEE CHECKING LUMBER USED IN BEAT 3 REPLIES TO REPORTS MADE BY "CITIZENS' COMMITTEE" IN SEA COAST ECHO RECENTLY

Committee Representing Supervisor Calvin Shaw Says Opposing Group Refused to Work Jointly and Refused To Check Two Remaining Roads Not Visited—Mr. Shaw's Letter.

Perkinston, P. O., Miss.
June 26th, 1935.

The Sea Coast Echo,
Bay St. Louis, Miss.

Gentlemen:—I have noted the report of the Power Committee which appeared in yours of the 21st inst., and I appreciate immensely the fairness on your part in offering to let both sides present their views to the public.

At the outset, I might say that like all reports that originate during a campaign there is much said pro and con and a lot of reports have reached folks which were attributed to me, but which were not true, and in fairness to the opposition I will state that I would imagine many of the reports that come to me were not as pictured to me.

In the discussion of the various propositions I have tried to be fair with the public, offering to put the facts before the people that I represent, in order that they might see the true facts and draw their own deductions. With that end in view, I shall attempt to answer the article appearing in your paper in it's issue of the 21st inst. From the first Monday in October, 1934 to the first Monday in March, 1935, I was charged with using 56,178 feet of lumber. In fairness to both sides, and I am sure the opposition would not want me charged with anything that could not be proven by evidence, I will state that bills were checked for lumber that might have been purchased before the period mentioned above. As to this I don't know as I have not checked over the dates as to when this lumber was purchased, but I felt that the lumber had been used in the Beat, and with that end in view, I made what appeared to me a fair proposition to the opposition. I did not think that it was right for a Committee to check this lumber without my having a Representative on this Committee. It is an old principle in America that a man is entitled to some representation on that Committee, but any appeal that I made along this line was rejected. I, therefore, suggested that I name a committee of three who would go with the Power Committee and check this lumber with them. I appointed this committee which consisted of following parties: Eli Ladner, Alex Ladner, and Oliver E. Cuenor. This committee of three was to work with the Power Committee in ascertaining exactly what lumber had been used, which required a careful check as this could not be procured by a mere look at the lumber. I assumed that this Committee, that is the Power Committee would work in harmony with the committee appointed by me, but to my surprise after they had checked over forty thousand feet of the lumber and had two checks that they had learned that the Power Committee would not work with them any more. In fact, the committee that I appointed assumed that the figures were so close, they felt sure that the Power Committee was satisfied and ceased the work of checking up. For the benefit of the uninformed, I will state that I was charged up with 56,178, but I am entitled to a credit of 10,000 feet of lumber, which was used in the building of toilets, and which would be a total of 46,178 feet used by me. The Board of Supervisors had agreed that in the Rural Section where folks had no toilets, that if the relief workers would cooperate with the Board, they would furnish the lumber for these toilets. This accounted for the 10,000 feet. These figures I stand ready and will go to check with anyone or with any committee that might be dissatisfied with these figures.

Now to give you an idea of what I was up against, I am going to give you the report that I have received from the Committee, which I appointed, and which report reads as follows:

June 21st, 1935.

Mr. Calvin Shaw,
Member Board of Supervisors,

Dear Sir:—We, the Committee appointed by you for the purpose of assisting the Power Committee in checking up the amount of lumber used in your Beat from the first Monday in October, 1934 to the first Monday in March, 1935, we beg to advise that we worked with this Citizens' Committee, and did all that we could to assist these gentlemen in getting these facts before them.

TAX NOTICE

To those who took advantage of the installment plan of paying their taxes, the last payment is due on or before August 1st for 1934 Taxes.

In order to avoid any extra charges other than the one-half of one percent per month interest on this last payment we advise that you call sometime during this month and settle these taxes.

To those who have not paid any tax on their Real Estate for the year 1934, advice that we have secured a postponement of the sale required by law to be held on the first Monday in April, until the third Monday in September, which will be the 16th day of September.

In order to make this sale it has to be published in four issues of the paper prior to that date and will require sometime in addition to that of our Office force to prepare the list for publication. So in order to prevent any additional charges, this also will have to be paid on or before the first of August this year.

As soon afterwards as we can get the Sale of Real Property off our hands, a list of the persons who are delinquent will be prepared and turned over to the Deputies in the various districts for collection. So we advise that you get this Tax paid as soon as possible also.

T. E. KELLAR,
Sheriff and Tax Collector.

We were handicapped in the following manner in our work:

First: We found it exceedingly difficult to check up the lumber used after it had been placed in a bridge because there is always some waste in lumber in the making of a bridge, and the Committee gave you credit for only the amount of lumber actually used in the bridge, and allowed no credit for waste.

Second: In choosing the lumber, we were handicapped in this manner: With the class of lumber now being used, it is very difficult to ascertain the age of the lumber and this caused us to rely solely on what we actually knew ourselves for the work that had been done.

Third: We found in certain cases where lumber had been hauled and unloaded, but stolen. The Committee refused to give us credit for this stolen lumber.

Fourth: We know of cases where the bridge was destroyed, two or three times within the time mentioned, and you had to rebuild these bridges, and could not get the Committee to accept these figures, as they would accept only the lumber on the scene. You, therefore, received no credit for the lumber used in replacing these various bridges.

Fifth: We know of cases where the lumber was placed on the bridges and washed away by high water, and we offered to give the committee proof that the same had been washed away, and actually did show them where the lumber had been washed away, and they admitted that it was new lumber, yet they refused to give you credit for the same.

Notwithstanding these figures, we actually checked up 40,860 feet of lumber. We are advised that there had been used between forty-four and forty-five thousand feet. When we got through checking this 40,860 feet, we advised the Committee that there were two more roads to check, and we wanted them to return the following day to check the two remaining roads, but they refused to do this, stating that it was unnecessary, and we labored under the impression that they were satisfied with this, and that the figures as found were satisfactory. However, to our surprise we found their article in the Sea Coast Echo of it's issue of June 21st, and we, therefore, are sending this letter in order that you might place the same in the newspaper or wherever you desire to get the same publicity was given to the article appearing in the newspaper in it's issue of the 21st inst.

We are ready and will go with the committee and check up the two remaining roads to be checked, and go with any person or persons and show them the lumber that was not checked up.

We have tried to act fairly by you and by the Committee and we are indeed sorry that the Committee could not see it's way clear to check up the remaining two roads.

We are,
Yours very truly,
ELI LADNER,
ALEX LADNER,
OLIVER E. CUEVAS.

which will as you may see leave a difference of only 5,318 feet unaccounted for, and when I say "unaccounted for" it is not a fair expression for the reason that there are two roads which are not as yet checked, and you can see with the building of bridges, there is quite a waste of lumber and it is not fair to check the lumber after the same has been placed in the bridges. I was given no credit for this waste. There is also some lumber washed away from the banks and drifted down creeks. The Power Committee admitted this fact, yet I received no credit for the same.

If anyone will stop and think, they will agree with me that it is a physical impossibility to measure lumber after it is built into bridges, yet I have been given no credit for this. Is that fair?

I could produce affidavits to prove that some of this lumber was delivered and after delivered stolen. I have been allowed no credit for this. Is this fair?

In addition to the above, some of the lumber was used for culverts, and I have witnesses to swear that this was done, yet I received no credit for this. Was that fair?

Is it fair for this Power Committee to refuse to check the remaining two roads to be checked other than to put me in a bad light?

I will state now, as stated before, that if this Committee wants to be fair, and if my opponents want to be fair, they will check up the two remaining roads to be checked and will allow me credit for those happenings over which I had no control, such as the washing away of lumber, the stealing of lumber when delivered and the rebuilding of bridges without giving me credit for the waste in building. I feel morally certain that all fair minded persons will be convinced that the lumber, as purchased, was placed on the roads of the county.

I wish to take this opportunity to thank you again for your fairness in this matter, and as stated before, I will be more than willing to go with anyone at any time to have this lumber checked on the two remaining roads to be checked as no man charged with a crime has ever been forced to be tried before a jury given to him, and no man should be tried without having something to say of it's selection. If I am given the opportunity to present my facts before the voting public of my beat, I am sure, they will agree with me that every foot of lumber purchased has been used in the county, and I will not be in the position of the man who is tried without being given a fair chance.

With best wishes, I am,
Yours very truly,
CALVIN SHAW.

FORMER BAY RESIDENT TELLS OF SAN DIEGO WONDER EXPOSITION

The California Pacific International Exposition, is wonderful—beautiful buildings, finely placed exhibits and gardens.

A singing fountain changes color with the music rhythm. Forty different colors are seen when the evening hour is near.

San Diego, is a color town—the Jewelry Exhibits are many and dazzling. Strange to say there are few diamonds. The opposite is true of Los Angeles.

The House of Charms is a house of jewels, etc., a wax-man, walks daily along the porch, in a stiff manner followed by a gaping crowd. He finally unbends himself and speaks a few words in a booth.

Better Housing Building has a fine jewelry exhibit. There are some fine mines near San Diego.

The town is flat, near the bay rising steeply a few streets back. The day we arrived the thermometer was 98 in the sun.

From a hill-top you see San Diego Bay, Point Loma, Coronado, San Diego, the Battleships, some destroyers. Several more battleships are beyond Point Loma.

The Ford Building is striking and all the others are grand. There's an immense zoo. A tiny ring-tailed monkey is much admired. The only one ever born in a zoo. The ringtailed monkeys are natives of America. Sight-seeing buses enable you to see everything. A fine Organ Amphitheater. From its top searchlights shine at night and special events daily.

The management is fine, the attendants are charmed to explain things to you.

The smallest bank in America is here.

Some of the buildings are House of Hospitality, Palace of Science, and Photography; Water and Transportation Building (the only one which will not remain after the exposition); Palace of Electricity and varied industries; Palace of Foods and Beverages.

It would repay anyone to see the wonderful California Pacific Exposition.
